What's been happening at OSHC

Welcome OSHC Families,

Well..it certainly has been busy. .BEPS OSHC would like to emphasize the we support diversity and inclusion in all its forms. Lot's of creating, thinking and sharing together.

Next week, we are supporting an excellent community cause by helping to raise Dementia Awareness.; 'You Are Not Alone' The children will be painting a banner to be displayed on the school fence for September —we hope to get some media attention. Please let us know your thoughts and experiences.

HAPPY FATHERS & SIGNIFICANT OTHERS DAY

We are looking for donations;

Coloured plastic bags, boxes, wool, scrap material, paper

OSHC Team

'Diversity contributes to a richness of our society and provides a valid evidence base about ways of knowing...when early childhood educators respect the diversity of families and communities, they are able to foster children's motivation to learn and reinforce their sense of themselves as competent learners.'
